Subject: Logging with disregard

Date: Tue, 21 Jun 2011 14:56:41 +1030

FORESTS NSW THUMBS THEIR NOSE AT ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER HERITAGE PROTECTION ACT

The area where logging has commenced today in Bermagui is part of an emergency and more permanent declaration for protection lodged with the Commonwealth government.

Forests NSW is logging with complete disregard to the application made under the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Heritage Protection Act 1984 (Cth). This application has been with the Department of Environment since May. Forests NSW are aware of the application.

Forests NSW are also logging with disregard to the letter that was sent to the relevant Ministers requesting that no logging be carried out in any of the Five Forest areas by the Biamanga Management Board.
